SERMON

OFFERTORY As the Grains of Wheat Hymn 465

Refrain

As the grains of wheat once scattered on the hill
were gathered into one to become our bread;
so may all your people from all the ends of earth
be gathered into one in you.

As this cup of blessing is shared within our midst,
may we share the presence of your love. (refrain)

Let this be a foretaste of all that is to come when all creation shares this feast with you. (refrain)

L: Lord Jesus Christ, because you broke bread with the poor,
C: you were looked on with contempt.

L: Because you broke bread with the sinful and outcast,
C: you were looked on as ungodly,

L: Because you broke bread with the joyful,
C: you were called a wine-biber and a glutton.

L: Because you broke bread in the upstairs room,
C: you sealed your acceptance of the way of the cross.

L: Because you broke bread on the road to Emmaus,
C: you made scales fall from the disciples' eyes.

L: Because you broke bread and shared it,
C: we will do so, too, and ask your blessing.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

The King of Love My Shepherd Is

Hymn 502

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

L: Let us pray.

C: Lord Jesus, in a wonderful sacrament you strengthen us with the saving power of your suffering, death, and resurrection. May this sacrament of your body and blood so work in us that the fruits of your redemption will show forth in the way we live, for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

STRIPPING OF THE ALTAR

Psalm 22 is read while we strip the worship space. As the space is left bare, reflect on the symbolism the empty space, as Christ empties himself for us and is stripped of his power and glory, and then is handed over to his captors.

+ + + + +

Tonight our worship is incomplete.

We leave the church in silence, gathering again in silence tomorrow.
